Mr. Charles Atchison

Nominated by: Marjorie Bofo-Appiah

Charles Atchison's entrepreneurial spirit and community impact is one for the history books. Starting with a single taxi in 1949, he has built a large ground transport service, provided employment, and supported many community endeavors. Atchison is celebrated for his indelible work ethic and devotion to service, inspiring countless others and setting elevated standards for industry practices and community involvement in South Carolina. He has made exceptional contributions to Spartanburg and his industry.

Dear Mr. Atchison,

On behalf of the Spartanburg County Foundation's Board and staff, please accept our sincere appreciation for all you have been doing to serve our community. We were excited to learn more about your work through our Trailblazers Exhibit held as part of our recognition of Black History Month. You are part of the work to build resources and opportunities across Spartanburg County, which supports the Foundation's mission to improve the lives of Spartanburg County residents. If we can assist you in your efforts, please do not hesitate to reach out to our team.

With gratitude,

Cathy McCabe
Board Chair
